JIMMIE ALLEN + MATT STELL

w/Special Guest: Chris Bandi

Saturday, November 14th at 7:30pm

Signed to BBR Music Group's Stoney Creek Records, Jimmie Allen has already made history as the first black artist to launch a career with two consecutive No. 1 hits on country radio – the first being his debut single “Best Shot” – which claimed the No. 1 spot for three weeks – and second being his latest single “Make Me Want To” off his debut album Mercury Lane, released fall 2018. Jimmie's most recent single “This Is Us” features Noah Cyrus and marks Allen's fastest consuming single, with 30 million streams to date. His latest project Bettie James, released in July 2020, is a star-studded collaboration EP featuring Brad Paisley, Charley Pride, Darius Rucker, Mickey Guyton, Nelly, Cyrus, The Oak Ridge Boys, Rita Wilson, Tauren Wells & Tim McGraw.

A native of Center Ridge, Arkansas, and a 6'7" former collegiate basketball standout, Matt Stell finds himself on the cusp of stardom. His powerfully romantic single “Prayed for You” has racked up more than 45 million digital streams; his newest hit “Everywhere But On” is quickly climbing the charts. The Nashville recording project he's been working toward for years is out, and he's made his Grand Ole Opry debut. Tapping a diverse love of artists whose songs read like stories – Randy Travis, Bonnie Raitt and the Drive-By Truckers, to name a few – Stell's own words began making waves, with songs like “Whiskey Baby” and “Small Town Love” hitting Number One on the Texas... ..Radio chart for Donahew, and raucous live shows pulling him to Nashville in 2014. Featuring current hits “Better Than That” and “If I Was A Bar”, Stell continues to establish himself as a can't-miss rising country star.

CHASE RICE

Friday, November 20th at 7:30pm

Rice first climbed charts as a co-writer of Florida Georgia Line's monster hit “Cruise,” the historic 24-week No. 1 that perched atop the Billboard Hot Country Chart longer than any other song in the chart's then-69-year history. In 2014, Rice broke through as an artist: Ignite the Night yielded Top 5 singles “Ready, Set, Roll” and “Gonna Wanna Tonight,” which he followed in 2017 with the acclaimed Lambs & Lions before ultimately earning his first No. 1 single as an artist, 2019's two-week chart-topper “Eyes On You.”. His current single “Lonely If You Are” is one of the top played songs in the country. Chase will play his hits in an intimate acoustic performance.
