Sounds of Summer Concert Series* begins Memorial Day weekend

The Daytona Beach Oceanfront Bandshell is thrilled to announce the return of its annual summer Friday night concerts starting Friday, May 27, and continuing through Friday, Sept. 23 (including special holiday weekend performances).

The Sounds of Summer Concert Series (formally known as the Summer Entertainment Series) will feature a full lineup of tribute bands playing a variety of genres including country, rock n' roll, disco and funk, Motown and R&B. Produced by the city's Cultural Services division, the Sounds of Summer Concert Series is free to the public with the option to purchase VIP seats for $10 plus applicable surcharges. Guests are welcome to bring their own chairs to the concerts or purchase VIP tickets, which include a seat.

VIP tickets will be available for purchase beginning at 10 a.m. Friday, March 18. Tickets can be purchased at www.ticketmaster.com or from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday at the Peabody Box Office at 600 Auditorium Blvd. in Daytona Beach.

The concert series starts Memorial Day weekend with Come Monday, a tribute to Jimmy Buffett, performing at 7:15 p.m. Friday, May 27. Buffett fans can expect to experience the music and lifestyle they would at one of Jimmy Buffett's live performances. Kip Sweeny will bring the crowd to their feet with all the classic Buffett songs including "It's Five O'Clock Somewhere," "Cheeseburger in Paradise" and "Margaritaville."

Other special holiday performances include:

- Sunday, May 29: The Beach Buoys, a Beach Boys tribute
- Sunday, July 3: U.S. Bee Gees, a Bee Gees tribute
- Sunday, Sept. 4: Fast Forward, a Kenny Chesney tribute

Note: All holiday performances begin at 7:15 p.m.

This year's Sounds of Summer Concert Series presenting sponsor is the city of Daytona Beach. Participating sponsors are Hometown News, Beach 92.7 FM, Kix Country 98.7 FM, Kool 100.9 FM, Gary Yeoman's Ford, Coca-Cola and Bud Light.
